The Theatres

ard Mack, Miss Blanche Douglas, and three numbers from the Orpheum

Bertha Hart, Ramsay Wallace, James orchestra. Allen, Edward Davis, Mart Franklyn, Alan Farr, Walter E. Robin-son, Harry W. Babb, Francis Maxwell, son, Harry W. Babb, Francis Maxwell, pleasing diversity to the patrons of the Grand theatre is the engagement for one week, commencing pantel S. Willis, William J. Counihan, William Phinney.

Vaudeville at Orpheum.

Novelty and notables will characterthis week's Orpheum program, it is "The Girl of the Times. act episode, which Hall Mccompany will present, line attraction. Mr. McAlder is well known here. He appeared Margare! Anglin's company in "The "Lady Parawherein he acquitted

Continued From Page 5. Clay Clement, jr. The entire cast fol- two interesting films on the kinodrome

Cunning at the Grand. What will unquestionably prove a tel S. Willis, William J. Counihan, Cunning, "The Jail Breaker," in an nel Devine, William Harris, M. J. "exhibition of magic, mirth and mys-Margaret Viliars and Jessie tery." The performer has just returned grownell.

Staged under the personal directions where he had bestowed upon him the distinguished honor of appearing at a private exhibition before the president in the palace at Chapultepec, an honor never before accorded an American performer, it is said. So pleased was the president that he presented Cun-ning, at the close of the performance, with a bronze statuette of himself. Cunning's performance opens with an act of clever and modern magic that act of clever and modern magic that paves the way to greater and more pretentious illusions. He keeps his audience in a continual state of bewilderment, interspersing it all with an element of refined comedy. His act of scientific jail breaking, as he is pleased to call it, is an original conception, and to call it, is an original conception, and week's sojourn here with relatives and friends.

The pastor of the Baptist church here the fore part of this week.

Mrs. L. M. Miller, accompanied by here two sons, Harold and George T. will be here this week to spend a day or two with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powell.

Guy Malloy has left for Idaho after a week's sojourn here with relatives and friends.

Guy Malloy has left for Idaho after a week's sojourn here with relatives and friends.

I. A. Walters was here Monday from Mrs. Belle Brown entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained the guests the remainder of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Quince Crawford entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained the guests the remainder of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Belle Brown entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained a number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their friends at a dinner party. After dimner sixty-three entertained and number of their fri scientific jail breaking as he is pleased to call it, is an original conception, and write have been unanimous in praising M. McAllister's work in this production.

A trio of opera singers come next. They are Italiaus from Naples. Their repertorie includes selections from the musical musterpieces and also more popular numbers.

The Three Rubes' is the title given to Bowers, Walters and Crooker, composite of the round-up, that were advertised, are to Bowers, Walters and Crooker, comedy acrossly, who portray rural characters. Their work consists of dancters. Their work consists of dancters and the selection from the most popular numbers.

The wolf hunt goes all the week at the Lyric, and people can see the picture that Roosevelt enthusiastically applicated but the bank robbery and the round-up, that were advertised, are them off at rehearsal he at once described. Their work consists of dancters are the deferment of the season to the product of the firm of the evening.

The Three Rubes' is the title given to Bowers, Walters and Crooker, composite of the work consists of dancters. Their work consists of dancters are the deferment of the guests the season to call it, is an original conception, and where he is now permanently located.

A trio of opera singers come next. They are Italiaus from Naples. Their beginning the production.

Pictures at the Lyric,

The wolf hunt goes all the week at the production of the trained a number of their friends at cards the season to call it, is an original conception, and the season the least tweek socioum here with relatives and friends.

At the Trocadero Saturday evening one of the most popular numbers.

The most popular numbers.

The trio of opera singers come next. They are Italiaus from Naples.

The wolf hunt goes all the week at the Lyric, and people can see the picture of the season to the maintender of the evening.

At the Trocadero Saturday evening one of the most popular numbers.

The mediude selections from the guests the femilian and a number of their friends at cards t

Hall McAllister, at the Orpheum.

grotesque comedy work.

intricate dances.

comedienne. Some critics have styled that Roosevelt saw and look upon the gam that Roosevelt declares he will shoot. he will essay are largely taken from he American comedians, artists and For the new year's accounts. Largest tars of the day, such as Marie Dress- assortment and newest ideas. Held, Fritzi Scheff and others.

The Bob and Tip trio consists of Bob Lee, the famous clown, and two unusually intelligent dogs.

ing, aerobatics, music, singing and Lyric standard, pocketed his loss and rotesque comedy work.

Miss Laura Hudson and company ing the game Roosevelt will find in will be seen in Martin V. Merle's one-act melodrama, "The Feud," a gripping dramatic story of the Kentucky mountains. Miss Hudson is a clever actress, tion. There is a lumbering hippopotawith many successes to her credit, mus, cunning monkeys, a great chimwhile the support is sufficient and able panzee, zebras, ostriches and denizens in every respect. Fred J. Butler has of the African coast. Great lions run charge of the production, and its stag- down their prey in view of the audience The American Tommy Atkins," the The balance of the program is fine. vivacious, clever and attractive char- The maniac cook causes real thrills. acter portrayed by Agnes Mahr, as-sisted by Flora Mahr, comes next. This number was seen here last year and high class. It will be surprising if the was given a warm welcome. The act Lyric is not favored with big crowds all consists of a series of chic, novel and the week. It deserves them. Those who have never attended a moving picture An impersonator and imitator, La show should go and see the picture Petite Mignon, is a remarkable little Roosevelt saw and look upon the game

Ledgers and Journals

r. George Cohan, Eva Tanguay, Anna | BREEDEN OFFICE SUPPLY CO., Dooly Building Corner.

Diamond Coal, sold only by Citizens' Coal company. Both phones 49.

Willard Mack as Dick Johnson (Ramarrez, the road agent) in David Belasco's great play, "The Girl of the Golden West."

State Society

Continued from Page 6.

MURRAY.

Miss Clara James, accompanied by her mother, left the fore part of this week for Long Beach, Cal., where they will spend some time with Mrs. Philip Eantz, who is spending the winter at that point.

Miss Nellie Frank, sister of A. Frank, arrived in Murray this week from Europe.

Miss Frank will make her home here with her brother in the tuture.

Albert Cahoon, who has been sojourning here for some time past, left the latter part of the week for his winter home in Idaho.

Ray Conyers has left for Omaha, where he will enter school at one of the medical colleges of that place.

Mrs. William McCleary left Sunday for a ten days' visit with relatives at Spring-

Miss Bringhurst has left for her home in Eureka, after a fortnight spent here with her relatives. John C. Bunting left Sunday evening for Chicago, where he will spend a month or

Rev. J. C. Andrews of Salt Lake visited the paster of the Baptist church here the two weeks. Mr. Peterson will leave shortly for the east on an extensive business trip of about one month's duration.

Monday evening S. J. Evans, who has been spending the past fortnight here with his parents, entertained for about six of his college chums. The evening was made in Frisco and Beaver.

John T. Rees has returned from a visit in Frisco and Beaver.

Herwey Whitemore of Nephi spent the Books of the winter.

In the control of the preservation the control of the preservation shot of the winter.

In the control of the preservation is the control of the preservation with the control of the preservation is the control of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation is the control of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation is the control of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation with the control of the preservation of the preservation with the preservation of the preservation of up of various amusements, and before departing for their various places of abode the young men were wined and dined in the most elaborate manner. Mr. Evans leaves shortly for the east to resume his studies.

objecting for their various Bases of About 1997 to the cast to resum it is most clarkers a manner. Mr. Kreins and the common the control of the conting and the control of the con

Jack Woodbridge, who has been seriously ill for some time past, is now well on the road to recovery.

At the home of A. C. Wood on Tuesday evening, a party in honor of his cousin, C. Charles from Idaho, was given. There were about twelve participants in the affair, and during the evening sixty-three was played, and later all sat down to a delicious supper which was served in the large dining room. The decorations were in pink and white.

Another affair of this week was the party given by, Miss Dorothy James at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. James of this place. The house was daintilly decorated in class colors, pennants being used, making a very effective display. A delightful program was rendered during the evening's entertainment. At 11 o'clock light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Clarle Peterson are here from Manti, to remain during the next two weeks. Mr. Peterson will leave shorting of about one month?'s duration.

May be been visiting in Provo for a week, in Miss Moiseille Renstrom of Huntsville was the past week year the past week was the partyoning friends in Mt. Pelasant.

Will Young and Will Mellor of Eureka were Provo visitors this week.

Will Young and Will Mellor of Eureka were Provo visitors this week.

Mrs. Stephen Busath of Salt Lake City is visiting in Provo with her parents, Mr. Another parents, Mr. Another parents, Mr. R. H. Paxman.

Miss Viola Whitehead has returned from Salt Lake City is spending a few days visiting in the Garding the week, the guest of President Stohl and family during the evek.

Miss Moiselle Renstrom of Huntsville was the party during the evek.

Will Young and Will Mellor of Eureka were Provo visitors this week.

Mrs. Stephen Busath of Salt Lake City is visiting in the Garding the week, the guest of President Stohl and family during the evek.

Miss Moiselle Renstrom of Huntsville was the party during the evek.

Will Young and Will Mellor of Eureka were Provo visitors this week.

Mrs. Net Head of Eureka Will during the evek.

Miss Moiselle Renstrom of Eureka Mrs. Anderson by about forty-five of their friends. The party was gotten up in honon of the birthday of Mrs. Anderson and Christensen, each being presented with a beautiful umbrella and a piece of handpainted china. A most pleasant evening was spent in games, music, etc. An elaborate lunch was served shortly after 9 o'clock.

A peautiful appointed luncheon was givo'clock.

A beautiful appointed luncheon was given by the Misses Cordelia and Marion Dorino Wednesday afternoon.
Born-To Mr. and Mrs. James Green, a fine boy. Monday morning.

C. Larsen Thorpe was the recipient of a delightful surprise given Tuesday evening in honor of his 75th anniversary.

Another party given during the past week was that given by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jones served a delicious surprise to a number of friends while the old year died out and the new one was born. Mr. McCafferty to twenty of their friends.

A 6 o'clock dinner was served and a pleasant evening was spent in cards, games, etc. Refreshments were passed during the evening.

This week Mrs. Rachel Anderson gave a delightful flinch party in honor of her brothers, Morgan and Harden Wood-

WITH A LAME BACK

Tuesday in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Walk of Wellsboro, N. J., are visiting relatives and friends in Logan and vicinity.

Have You Rheumatism, Kidney, Liver or Bladder Trouble?

SALINA.

The Kensington club was delightfully entertained last night at the White House by Mrs. Fred Morgan. An elaborate lunch was served, and a picasant afternoon was All the ladies of the club were present. Dr. Birch of Los Angeles, Cal., is visiting friends at Salina this week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kleinsmith will reach Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Kleinsmith will reach their home in Salina tomorrow, after an extended trip through the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kearns of Salt Lake are guests at the White House.

Eiler Freece, the principal of the High school in this city, returned Sunday from a three weeks' trip to San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Dastrup are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine haby boy.

Detleffson Thursday.

The Shoe Event of the Year

120 MAIN STREET.